

Non-Executive Board Member of the Agriculture and Horticulture Development Board (AHDB) with additional responsibility of being Chair of the Pork Sector Board. £32,000 pa (based on 104 days per year)

AHDB is working to achieve a world – class food and farming industry that is inspired by and competing with the best. Do you have what it takes to inspire our farmers, growers and industry to succeed in a rapidly changing world?

AHDB is funded by farmers, growers and others in the supply chain through statutory levies. It equips the industry with easy to use, practical know-how which they can apply straight away to make better decisions and improve their performance.

The Board appointments will be for up to a three year period from the commencement date. This opportunity occurs at a significant and exciting time for AHDB as it looks to respond to the global challenges facing the farming and food sectors over the coming decade.

The new Board Member of AHDB will demonstrate leadership, contribute ideas and be jointly responsible for ensuring that AHDB

The UK Government and devolved administrations are committed to improving the diversity of the boards of their public bodies and welcome applications irrespective of race, ethnic or national origin, sex, marital status, disability, sexual orientation, religion, religious beliefs or similar philosophical belief, age, gender re-assignment or community background. The Commissioner for Public Appointments regulates and monitors ministerial appointments to public bodies to ensure that they are made on merit after fair and open competition.

is a resilient and high performing body. They need to be able to demonstrate an understanding of the issues facing AHDB and the Pork sector as well as the wider food and farming industries. You will have passion and a desire to ensure that levy payers get the best value for money from AHDB.

The AHDB Board meets around six times a year, at the AHDB Offices, Stoneleigh Park, Kenilworth near Coventry.

To request an application pack or to find out more about the roles please email: Christine.Standley@ahdb.org.uk

The closing date for all applications is: 8th February 2017.
Interviews are expected to be held in: Week commencing 27th February 2017. Successful applicants will be expected to start as soon as practically possible.